

I am tired of you trying to dictate what I listen to. Satellite radio is something I pay for and I want everything possible available to me. The FCC does not need to decide what I can and cannot buy.